

NO TIME TO BE LOST TO BRING THE CONVENTION TO NEW YORK

ONLY 15 DAYS FOR CONVENTION WORK

The National Democratic Committee Meets on Jan. 12 and New York Must Do All Her Hustling and Raise a Fund Before that Date.

Comptroller Grout and Other Well-Known Citizens Give Conclusive Reasons Why New York Should This Year Be Chosen by the Democrats.

Only fifteen working days remain in which New York may strive to secure the Democratic National Convention. The National Committee meets in Washington Jan. 12. Between now and then there are three Sundays and two holidays. The Evening World will contribute $5,000 to the necessary fund. What will the rest of New York give? Chicago secured the Republican Convention for next June by offering $70,000 with which to defray its expenses. The $5,000 offered by The Evening World will probably more than pay for the rental of Madison Square Garden for the convention.

WOULD BRING 300,000 VISITORS. More than 300,000 visitors will be attracted to this city by the National Democratic Convention, each with money to spend in the great stores of this city. Not considering the pride which attaches to the host of a National Convention, is not the financial prize worth securing? Not since 1868 has there been a National Convention in New York City. Chicago has been given the great majority and has less than one-twentieth of the accommodation New York can offer. The latest argument urged against New York as a convention city is that the opposition would make a campaign cry of "A ticket nominated in the shadows of Wall street."

MR. STRAUS'S STRONG WORDS. Oscar B. Straus, former Minister to Turkey, member of the National Civic Federation, leading merchant and staunch Democrat, smashes that sort of argument in the following interview: "New York is greater than Wall street. For that matter, I might add that the Democratic party is greater than Wall street—if it will pull together. Such talk as 'unfavorable effect upon public sentiment' is pure rot. New York is cosmopolitan, and the ideal convention city. Most heartily I commend The Evening World's plan to bring the convention of Democrats here. It is about time we had a National Convention. More than that, it is about time a National Convention had a New York experience. Indeed, New York has something to give in return which is more than some of the late convention cities have offered."

NEW YORK THE LOGICAL CITY. "New York is the logical place for the Democratic Convention," continued Mr. Straus. "It is the pivotal city of the country. Every intelligent eye in the world is upon New York just at the present time, and where could the new and reunited Democratic party better and more advantageously launch its coming and eventful Presidential campaign? I think that the selection of the convention city will mean considerable to the party. Candidates? There will be plenty, and the bringing of the delegates to New York will not affect the chances of any candidate. What an opportunity for a 'get-together' convention! The very atmosphere of New York breathes conciliation. Let us have the convention here by all means."

NEW YORK CONVENTION WOULD AID THE PARTY

With the assurance that the sentiment in favor of bringing the National Democratic Convention of 1934 to this city is growing, business men, regardless of politics, are becoming enthusiastic over the prospect. With the $5,000 subscribed by the Evening World as a nucleus of a guarantee fund, the feeling seems to be that there will be no difficulty in raising at least $100,000. The feeling among Democrats throughout the State was voiced yesterday by Senator Patrick H. McCarrren, Democratic leader of Kings County. He listened attentively to the proposition and then said: "It's the best idea that could possibly have been originated for the good of the Democratic cause in the coming campaign. The Evening World has opened the way by its generous subscription to the necessary fund. To hold the convention here cannot fail to enthrone the Democrats of the East, and if, as I believe, enthusiasm is the most potent factor in winning an election a convention in this city is all that is needed to bring the wavering States into the Democratic line. "The doubtful States I consider to be Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, West Virginia and Connecticut. A study of the question convinces me that a convention held in New York will do more than almost anything else to take these States out of the doubtful list. Remember, too, that there are thirty-nine electoral votes in the State of New York. "But even with the question of adding to Democratic strength left out, there are many logical arguments in favor of holding the convention here. New York can accommodate a convention crowd as no other city in the country can. The spirit of fairness should prompt the Democratic managers to send the convention here. Why, it has been thirty years since we had one in New York."

Leaders to Take Up Movement. "I am positive that each Democratic manager in the State will take up the movement when it becomes evident that concerted action will bring about the desired result. Such concerted action must here be initiated by someone."

E. Mack, National Committeeman, of Buffalo. "If Mr. Mack says the word I don't know of a Democratic leader in the State who would not exert himself to the utmost in an effort to bring the convention to New York. "For myself, I will do everything in my power to aid the plan, not only because I have the civic pride to desire success for my home city, but because I believe that the choice of New York as the convention city of 1934 will strengthen the National Democratic cause." The railroads are waking up to the importance of the Evening World's agitation of the convention question. George H. Daniels, General Passenger Agent of the New York Central Railroad, said: "There is no doubt that every merchant, restaurant man and business generally would feel the boom which the holding of the National Democratic Convention here would bring to business interests in this city. Their profits would be proportionately greater than that of the railroads, because we always cut our rates in two for convention visitors. But the reduction in fare would bring many thousands of people to New York from distant points. Tourists would come here even if they took little or no interest in the convention itself. "Westerners and Southerners would be induced to make the trip to the far East to visit our near-by summer resorts during convention week. It is not too much to say that twice as many people would come to New York during the convention here, by all means. New York can easily take care of it. We haven't any horse-cars on Fourteenth street now, and are thoroughly up to date. Delegates will be brought to the city and sent to their hotels and we can give them city and inter-

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMEN GIVE NEW YORK HOPE THAT SHE WILL WIN CONVENTION.

NEW YORK A GOOD PLACE. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) New York is a good place for Democratic Convention. J. R. McLEAN, Ohio.

VERMONT IS IN LINE. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) I think I shall favor New York. J. H. SENTER, Vermont.

NEW YORK OUGHT TO SUCCEED. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) New York can present strong claims for the National Convention, and if it makes vigorous effort ought to succeed. TRUE L. NORRIS, New Hampshire.

PLEDGES VOTE TO NEW YORK. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) New York can depend on my support for the Democratic National Convention. JAMES R. JACOBS, Oklahoma Territory.

NO DOUBT ABOUT JERSEY. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) I favor New York. WILLIAM B. GOURLEY, New Jersey.

TEXAS INCLINES THIS WAY. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) If I can be shown that it will advance the interests of the party I will vote for New York. There is much in the argument you offer, and I will seriously consider it. R. M. JOHNSTON, Texas.

WILL CONSIDER NEW YORK. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) I have as yet given no pledges in regard to this matter, and shall not do so, as I expect to hear as impartially as I can the claims of the various cities. I trust that the claims of New York City will be fully presented when the National Committee meets. HOMER S. CUMMINGS, Connecticut.

FAVORS A WESTERN CITY. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) New York City is too far East for the Convention. I will favor some city further West. JAMES C. DAHLMAN, Nebraska.

FOR MILWAUKEE FIRST. (By Telegraph to the Editor of The Evening World.) I am in favor of Milwaukee for the Democratic National Convention first. I shall give New York due consideration if Milwaukee is out of it. I recognize that New York City can truthfully claim to be a desirable location for the Democratic National Convention at this particular time. There is no doubt of its ability to entertain the same right royally. T. E. RYAN, Wisconsin.

urban transportation to beat any city in the country. Frank Hadley, General Superintendent of the Manhattan "L". We ought to be able to handle the crowd better than Chicago or any other city. We have trains every forty-seven seconds now on the Sixth avenue line during rush hours, and if the convention crowds make longer rush hours we will accommodate them. John B. McDonald, contractor for the subway road: I favor the convention project. Bring it here and we will show them how cool it is to ride underground. E. P. Bryan, general manager of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company: I believe the new subway will be completed by convention time, and delegates would find it a pleasure to use our means of transit. If transportation facilities count for anything the convention ought to come here. Lewis Nixon, President Marquis Marks, of the Wholesale Clothing Manufacturers' Association; President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor; Lieut.-Gov. Frank Higgins, President Charles L. Eldridge, of the Building Trades Employers' Association, and Emerson McMillan, all expressed their approval of The Evening World's plan.

E. M. GROUT HOPES THIS CITY WILL BE CHOSEN.

The Comptroller and Other Democratic Local Leaders All Work for the Big Convention.

"The idea of having the convention in New York is, to my mind, an excellent one," said Comptroller Grout to-day. "As a New Yorker, I am impressed with the great importance of the city, not only as a business center, but as the future political center. New York possesses all of the facilities for the holding of one of the greatest national conventions in the history of our country. Madison Square Garden would indeed be the ideal hall. I cheerfully agree with The Evening World's plan. That is why the aristocratic residences still stand in the old Washington square and Stuyvesant districts in the midst of the din of commercial traffic. That is why the great jewelry museum of Casperfeld & Cleveland still remains on the historic Bowery, where it has stood for nearly half a century, long famous the country over. Each succeeding year it has put forth its best efforts to procure the rare and original and the beautiful in gems and jewelry, and it may be truly said, that its holiday display of 1933 exceeds anything that has ever been attempted by them, or by any other diamond and jewelry house in the United States. For weeks past the store has been and will be thronged with visitors, curious to see the remarkable display of blinding diamonds and rare jewels, and marvelling at the magnitude of the collection. The Christmas Quindary finds speedily dissolved in this mammoth store, for the variety of goods and the large range of prices satisfy the most fastidious, the most extravagant and the most modest of tastes. The store at No. 141 Bowery in the Bowery Savings Bank Block is most convenient to all points—in fact, the easiest store in Manhattan for Brooklynites to reach. Treat yourself to a visit to this establishment. It will indeed be a treat to see the myriads of brilliant, artistic, pendant, handsome scarf pins, earrings and extensive array of watches. The watch display is notable for its size and beauty, consisting of gold, silver and metal, which prevail at the store, and the plain and other cases, cut and engraved and diamond studded, some most delicate and ingenious. To many causes have been ascribed the high prices which prevail at the Casperfeld & Cleveland store. What they are we do not venture to say, but their prices are invariably 25 per cent. less than can be found anywhere else in the city. Until Christmas, the store will be open evenings until 11 o'clock."

COLOMBIA LANDS BAND OF SCOUTS

Cruiser Mayflower Despatched from Colon to Locate Advance Force in Observation Camp on Island of Pines.

COLON, Dec. 21.—Information has been received here that about one hundred Colombian troops have landed at the Island of Pines, northwest of Cape Tiburn, which is situated at the western entrance of the Gulf of Darien. The Island of Pines is in Panama territory, and is the only island along that coast which is wooded, peaked with mountains and also well watered, thus offering every facility for camping and being used as a base of observation. It is significant in this connection that the United States auxiliary cruiser Mayflower left this harbor yesterday evening, bound in the direction of the Island of Pines, to obtain confirmation of the report.

The United States gunboat Bancroft is still on that coast, in the vicinity of Nombre de Dios. The United States cruiser Nashville has returned to Colon from Bocas del Toro. Rear-Admiral Coghlan has transferred his flag to the United States auxiliary cruiser Fairlie. Thirty-five of the U. S. S. Prairie's marines were landed to-day and took a train for Bar-Oblig station, near Emmerald. They will occupy the Canal Company's house at Bar-Oblig.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Rear-Admiral Taylor, Chief of the Bureau of Navigation and Executive of the General Naval Board, to-day was in conference with Capt. John E. Pillsbury, Assistant Chief of the Bureau, Capt. William Swift, Chairman of the General Board's Committee on the Fleet; Commander Winslow and Lieut. Belknap, of the Bureau of Navigation, in the secret office of the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation. Several cablegrams which arrived from Rear-Admiral Glass and Coghlan over Sunday were taken up for consideration and instructions in reply were prepared and submitted to Secretary Moody for approval. Nothing official regarding the conference was announced except that it concerned the isthmian situation. Official confirmation has reached Washington of the landing of Colombian troops on the Island of Los Pinos, which lies close to the coast of Panama. These troops number eighty and they have taken up a position on this island with the intention of making paths through the jungles.

WHEN IS A TWIN NOT A REAL TWIN?

That Is the Question Which Justice Davis and a Jury Had to Answer, and Oscar Hammerstein Lost the Suit.

Oppressed by the weighty questions involved, of whether a player, even a burlesquer, may change his twin whenever fancy suggests a different brother, Justice Clarke to-day sent the test case of the Maroo Twins to Justice Davis for trial. The verdict of the jury was in favor of the twins and against Oscar Hammerstein. McLaughlin, six feet three, was put through a long examination by his attorneys, Edward Hynes and "Willie" Wines, as to his "act," and McLaughlin elucidated his remarkable claim that he alone is the twins, the diminutive partner in his burlesque act being "any good, supple, handy boy of 65 to 90 pounds." "What do you do with this other twin?" asked Justice Davis. "Well, I throw him up against the wall across the stage, and he sticks there, for one thing," said the long twin. McLaughlin insisted that his act on the Victoria Roof Garden was the same as that seen by Oscar Hammerstein at Koster & Bial's of long ago, and that Mr. Hammerstein was not justified in breaking his contract for eight weeks so late as last week and refusing to let him earn the $1,200 he is suing for. "Nathaniel Cohen called 'Willie' Hammerstein, of No. 24 West Eighth street, son of an act, and business manager for Oscar, was his first witness. Mr. Hammerstein testified that McLaughlin and Fred Up, the round midget, presented a finished fantasy in boxing, wrestling and acrobatics, but that the well-known lad McLaughlin brought to the Victoria with him was not nearly as satisfactory; that while Up was only three feet nothing and a 66-pound ball, this new 'twin' was taller and weighed 88 pounds, and was a heavy fighter to handle with that graceful abandon which made the original Maroo Twins so attractive." The jury will decide.

WOMAN IN BLACK DEAD.

Fell on Sidewalk at 90th Street and Central Park West. At noon to-day a woman forty years old fell unconscious to the sidewalk at Ninetieth street and Central Park West. She was taken to the J. Hood Wright Hospital, where she died soon after. She was about five feet four inches in height, with fair complexion, gray eyes, and brown hair. She wore a black satin skirt, a black satin shirt-waist, a black undergarment, black hosiery, black stockings and black patent leather shoes, and a long black coat. Around her neck was a long string of black beads, to which was attached a silver cross.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

A Timely Warning on Some of Its Dangers.

During the season of Christmas shopping great care should be taken not to unnecessarily expose yourself to colds that are likely to result in grip and pneumonia. The excitement of the day is quite likely to cause you to overlook the sudden change from hot to cold, coming from the close and suffocating air of the big stores to the street. Then there is great danger from disease germs where so many people are gathered in close quarters. Doctors declare that this is one explanation for the annual increase of sickness at this season. While this article is written to again call your attention to the value of Father John's Medicine in curing and preventing colds, grip and pneumonia, it will be of value to you and may save your life if it causes you to be careful and avoid the dangers we have pointed out—they are real dangers. And if we cause you to avoid the patent medicines, cough syrups and so-called balsams, 99 per cent. of which contain nerve-deadening and poisonous drugs, by again warning you against them, it will be the means of saving your health.
